Occupying a corner allotment, spanning 568m², this stately Edwardian embodies the majestic grandeur of a bygone era, a quality seldom found in today's homes.

The regal allure is highlighted by a traditional entrance hall with stained glass window, soaring 10' ceilings, three fireplaces, Baltic pine flooring throughout, some original ceiling roses. Together they form a brilliant canvas to inspire creative imagination to weave historical character.

The magnificently proportioned floor plan reveals a realm of possibilities with five principal rooms at the fore, ready to be tailored to your living, dining and sleeping preferences. The kitchen, ripe for renovation, holds the promise of a gourmet space, while the bathroom offers scope for update too.
